SUMMARY

I am Prince Kumar, a creative and driven 4th-year BTech Information Technology student at AKTU University, with a strong command of modern web development tools like HTML, CSS, JavaScript, ReactJS, Bootstrap, Python, and OracleSQL.

My passion lies in crafting intuitive and responsive user interfaces that seamlessly blend design and functionality. With a portfolio of successful projects, I have honed my ability to deliver clean, efficient code and innovative solutions. Beyond tech, my artistic flair in drawing sharpens my eye for detail, bringing a unique edge to my design approach.

I thrive on challenges and am excited to contribute to cutting-edge web projects.
